SUBJECT: Briefing of Jim Bush on Collection Items

5213
OIC #78-~~XXXX~~

1. Jim Bush has called and says he is ready to resume his briefings on sensitive collection. In conversations with Ed Sherman, Bush has referred several times to a conversation he had with you in which some discussion was held on how HPSCI could be given some insight into the value derived from our most sensitive operations. He would like to talk with you again on that subject.

2. Bush will be coming out probably Thursday or Friday this week. If you had fifteen minutes to see him on either of those days, we might be able to pin down this rather elusive part of his briefing.

3. Please advise your availability for such a talk.
